THE LAST DAY.

Alex. Smith the Last Man for Trial by Military Commission.

The Court did not assemble until 10 o'clock.

Alex. Smith was the prisoner brought in for trial. He was arrested at his home in Kapunkolo, and had not taken active part in the late uprising. The prisoner was a little hard of hearing, requiring Interpreter Wilcox to sit close to him.

Judge Advocate Robertson then read the charge and specifications preferred against Alex. Smith. He is charged with misprision of treason. The prisoner pleaded guilty to both specifications and charge.

When asked if he desired to make any statement he answered in the negative.

The Judge Advocate stated that some time previous to the uprising the accused knew of Sam Nowlein's plans, assisted in procuring men, and was to be the leader of squad at the Fishmarket. On the night of the Kakaako affair a number of men assembled at the house of the accused near the Fishmarket, awaiting the arrival of the arms. The men stayed there until Nowlein arrived and told them that the scheme had been disclosed to the police and it could not come off. He did not go to Diamond Head on Sunday.

He, however, carried the guilty knowledge for several days. It may be stated that the accused was with Wilcox in the insurrection of 1889, and may be placed in the same class as Kaimimoku, who was on trial a few days ago. The accused is a hard-working man and, although the case is not a very severe one, he should be dealt with accordingly. In conclusion the Judge Advocate said it was the last name on the roll and this was the last case to be tried before the Commission.

Col. Whiting announced the case closed and cleared the Court until 10 o'clock Monday morning, when, if nothing came up, the Commission would adjourn sine die.

THE STAND HE TAKES

Mr. Kaulukou Defines His Position on Annexation.

John Lot Kaulukou, the well-known native lawyer, member of former Legislatures, ex Postmaster-General and ex-Marshall, has taken notice of the fact that he was scantily reported in his speeches at the meeting of the Hawaiian Annexation League the other evening. He knows and admits that the slight was not intentional, but due to the fact that he spoke in Hawaiian without an interpreter.

Mr. Kaulukou said this morning that he did not like to see the Hawaiians represented as being in the position of "beggars."

"The United States want these islands," said he. "They have always wanted them. Have they not said that they will allow no other country to interfere with these islands? We are not beggars when they want to own the islands."

"Very few Hawaiians will join this Annexation League after it has said it will not insist on the condition of the country's being annexed as a state or as a territory. Unless that condition is put in, we cannot explain to the natives the benefits of annexation."

"When martial law is over we can hold mass meetings and explain annexation to the natives. But, as I say, the natives will not accept the scheme excepting it is for state or territorial government. They will not join this League. I will not attend its meetings any more after its action on this question."

"If the natives cannot get annexation of the islands as a state or a territory, every man of them would sign a petition to be annexed to the British Empire."

Released.

The following men arrested on suspicion of having been connected with the late trouble were released yesterday: Ed. Norris, E. B. Thomas, Geo. Lyeurgus, Captain Ross, F. J. Testa, A. Fernandez, Mrs. Jessie Kane, W. Mossman, H. Defries, J. R. Prendergast, J. Mitchell, H. West, C. Dunwell and J. B. Grant.

Julius Freitas was arrested last night for assault and battery on his wife.

CRAFTY CROOK CAUGHT.

He Knew a Thing or Two About the Art of Burglary.

Jim Kukona, one of the boldest and most daring burglars, was captured yesterday by Detective Larsen and his assistants. Kukona has served several terms on the reef and has been out of jail about a year. He has been suspected of having committed several burglaries during the time he has been at liberty, but no positive proof could be gained of his having committed or taken part in the same. In the past few days Detective Larsen gained sufficient evidence to convict Kukona of three different burglaries and several petty larcenies. He was arrested but no charge was preferred against him, he being merely held for investigation. When searched at the Police Station a nutshell full of opium was found in his pocket.

Kukona is considered to be one of the adroitest and most daring of his profession. He is known to have entered houses and taken only money from among a lot of jewelry, without touching the latter whereby he could be traced.

This morning a Portuguese called at the Police Station with a $10 Confederate greenback. It had been stolen from him, and yesterday he found it in the possession of a Chinese storekeeper. It had been given to him to be changed by a flower girl. The flower girl said it had been passed to her by Jim Kukona.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Account of Guardian of Long Minor Children.

F. A. Schaefer, guardian of the minor children of the late Charles A. Long, has rendered his annual account, showing receipts of $10,338.68, expenditures of $8391.26, which leaves a balance of $1907.42 to the credit of the two minor children. Several of the original minors came of age before the past year's accounts began.

M. C. Bailey vs. J. S. Bailey, assumpsit for $109.25, jury waived, was heard by Judge Cooper to day. The Court found in favor of plaintiff for $21.35, plaintiff to pay costs. A. G. Correa for plaintiff; defendant in person. The suit was for money paid and lent, and wages due. Defendant makes woven wire mattresses.

B. Freimann has been adjudicated bankrupt on his own petition for $775 or thereabouts.

OP:UM DESTROYED

It Had Been Too Long in the Water to Retain Its Virtue.

The tin case containing 100 half-pound tins of opium found in the bay on Feb. 7 by a number of boys and turned over to Customs Officer Geo. Wilson was destroyed this morning. The tins were leaking and the stuff was no good. Port Surveyor Sanders threw the entire outfit into the furnace of the Honolulu Planing Mills and watched it until it had been entirely consumed. The volume of smoke emitted from the smokestack was black for a few minutes.

How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARAGO, COOS CO., OREGON, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. BULLORD. 50 cent and $1.00 bottles. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Not to Be Reorganized.

After the dismissal of Captain Larsen and four of his men, reported in this paper yesterday, the detective force will not be reorganized on the old footing. Instead Marshal Hitchcock will have certain detectives retained under his own control. The Marshal held Captain Larsen's ability in high esteem, but a strong combination forced his retirement.
